LIFE'S WEAVING

My life is but a weaving
Between my God and me;
I may not choose the colors,
He knows what they should be;
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side,
While I can see it only
On this, the under side.

Sometimes He weaveth sorrow,
Which seemeth strange to me;
But I will trust His judgment,
And work on faithfully;
'Tis He who fills the shuttle,
He knows just what is best;
So I shall weave in earnest
And leave with Him the rest.

At last when life is ended,
With Him I shall abide,
Then I may view the pattern
Upon the upper side;
Then I shall know the reason
Why pain with joy entwined
Was woven in the fabric
Of life that God designed.

DEAR GRADUATE:

". . . My home is to be turned into a school for America's youth where they might learn good Christian living in the business world," bequeathed Rosine Parmentier when she willed her property to the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1908. So it was that your "school of the times" in the heart of a busy industrial section of Brooklyn was launched.

In 1946, to cope with a constantly increasing student body—then numbering 1400 students—a ten-story office building was converted into a business school to accommodate upperclassmen. The 1957 fall semester saw the opening of the Annex and Parmentier buildings to house the freshmen. In the passage of twelve years countless numbers of graduates have gone on before you into the business and professional fields to pursue their livelihood.

With a view to qualifying you for pursuing higher education in the nation's colleges, St. Joseph's affords a unique academic-commercial curriculum. Extra-curricular activities — in the arts, science, religion and sports— promote initiative and provide an outlet for student talents.

Besides the details of basic material knowledge your daily religious instructions outline a design for living imbued by your Catholic Faith which the threads of your life must weave.

GRADUATES OF ST. JOSEPH'S, equipped to meet the challenges which life presents and prepared to fulfill obligations which grace fortifies, the time is NOW! Weave for the Eternal pattern!

Que Dios las Bendiga!

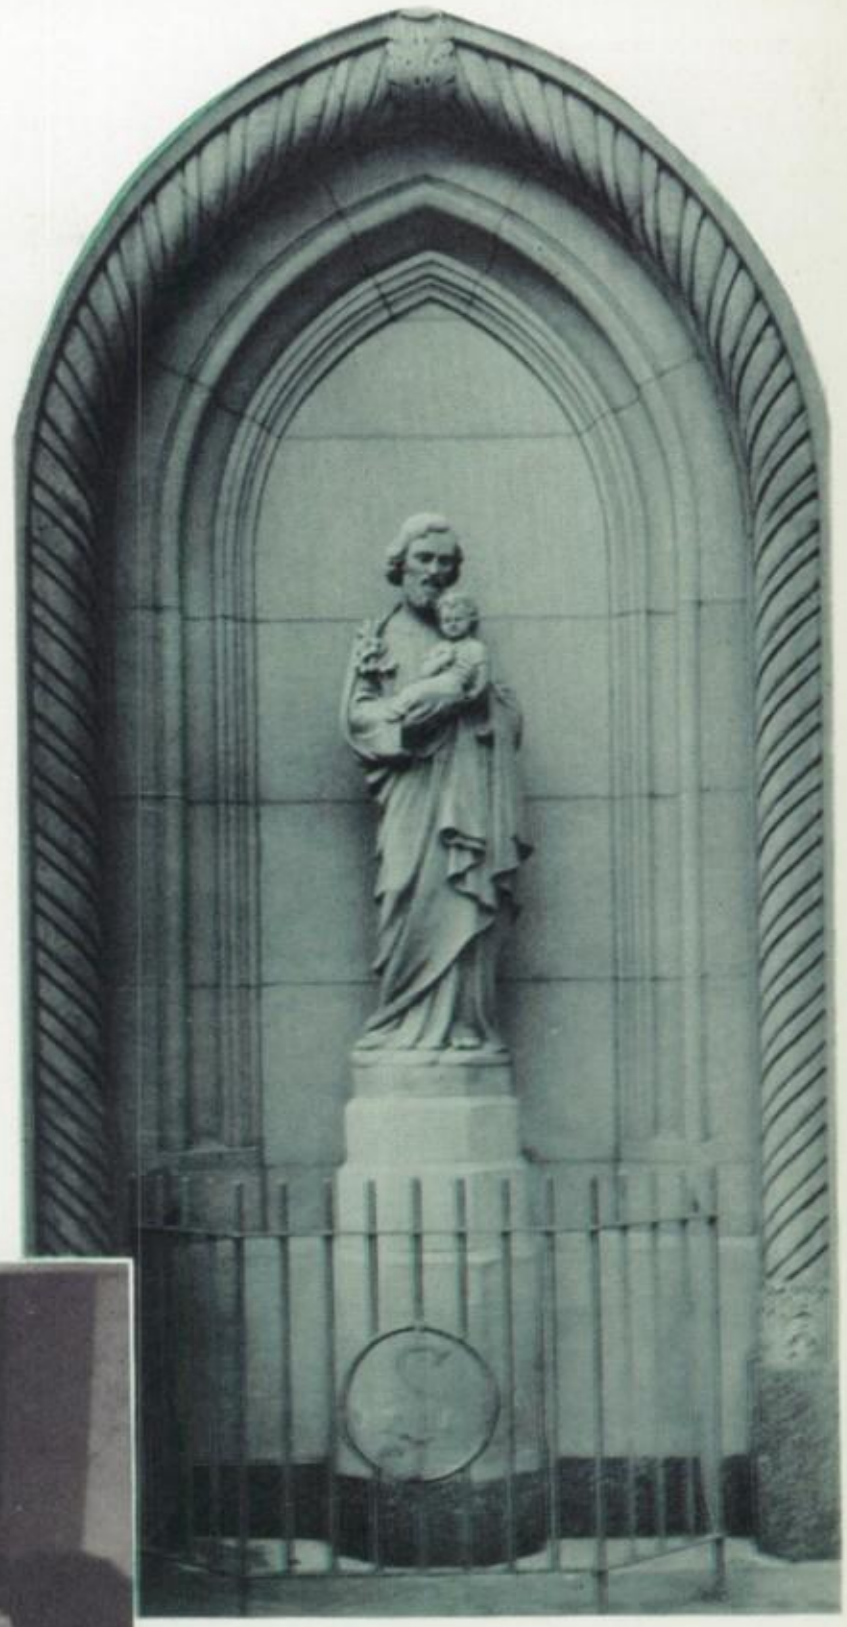
OUR TEACHING PRIESTS

Our Faculty.

Throughout the annals of history, great men owe their success to their even greater teachers. It is, therefore, fitting and proper that we, the Seniors of '58, dedicate our yearbook, "Parmentier", to both our religious and lay faculty.

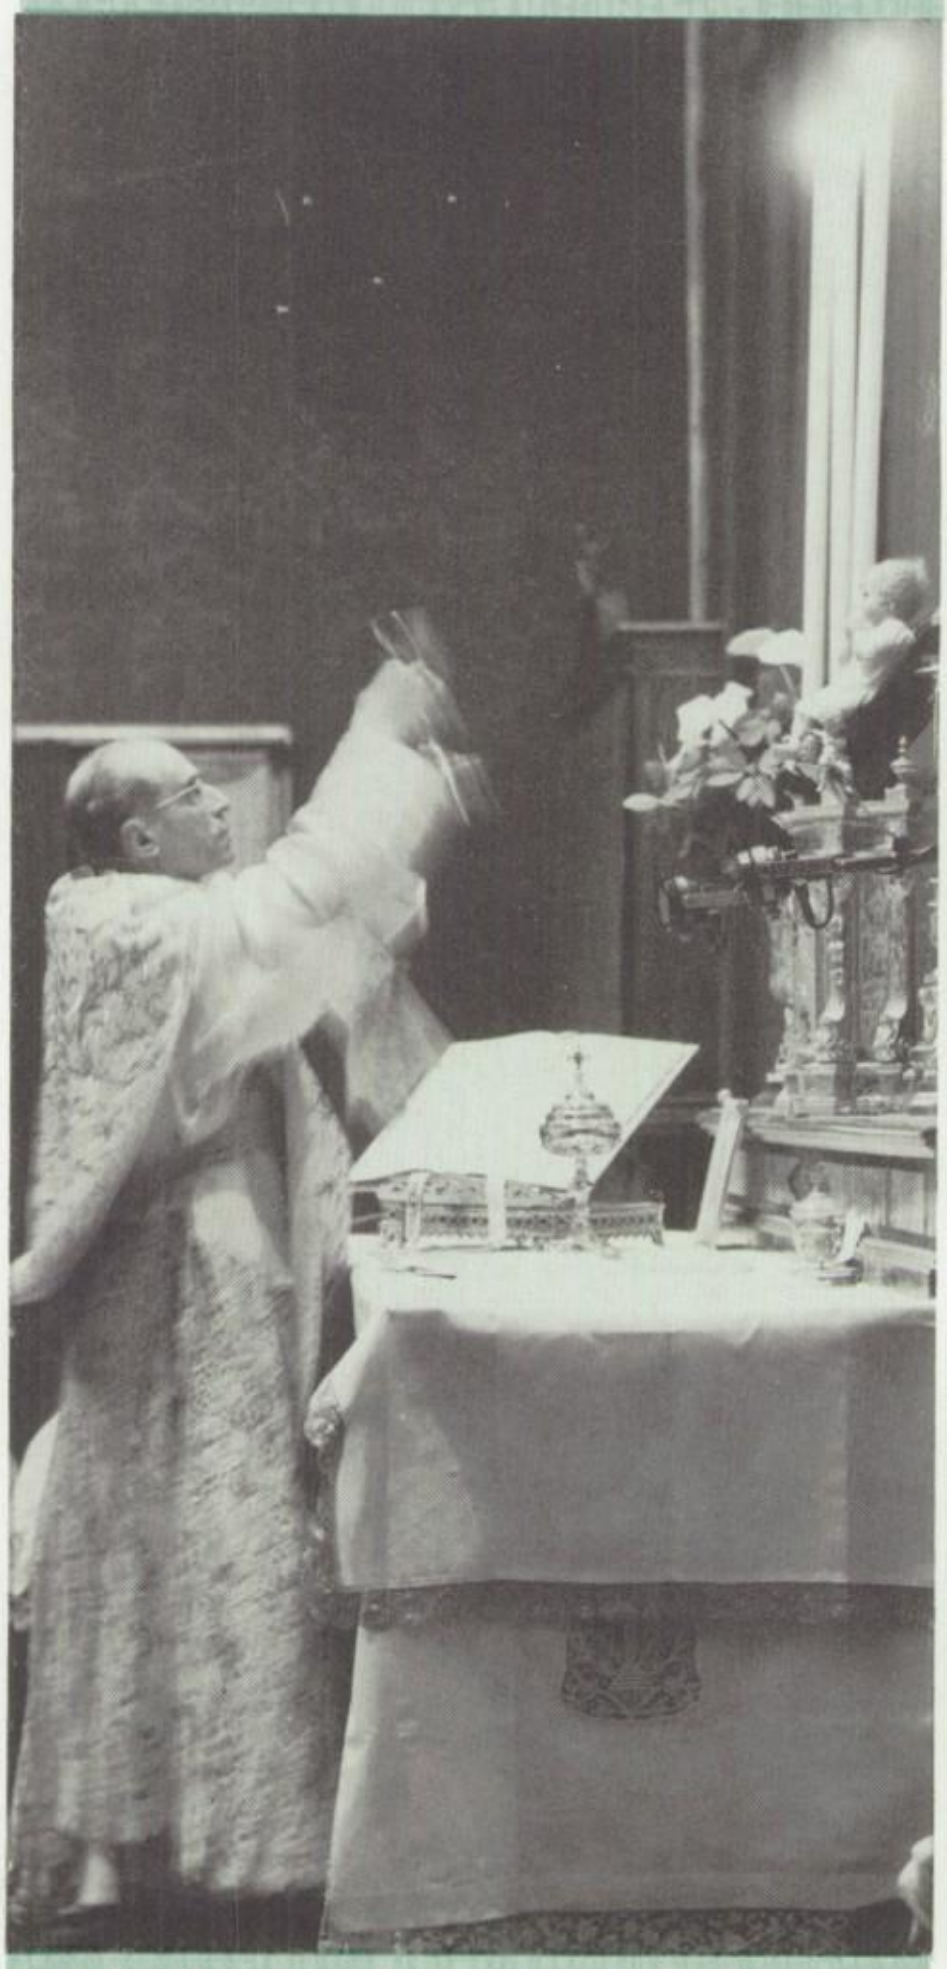
Our teachers not only direct and stimulate our search for skills and information but also inspire and instruct us for our moral and intellectual improvement. We are fortunate that our religious and lay teachers carry out these dedicated functions so effectively.

It is impossible to appreciate our benefits at St. Joseph's Commercial High School so, in gratitude, we offer our fervent prayer, "May God bless and sanctify the sacredness of your mission."



THE DEVOTED SISTERS

OUR LAY FACULTY



HIS HOLINESS POPE PIUS XII

As the world silently sleeps, the Vicar of Christ whispers lovingly the words of Consecration, "Hoc est enim corpus meum," commanding Christ to descend upon the congregation in the first Mass of Christmas.

You, Holy Father, are the wisdom of life's weaving; to you we look for comfort and guidance in the turbulent world about us. We are fearful of the dangers to our government but find security in the knowledge that we have such a pious, capable head as yourself.

As the Vicar of Christ on earth, you are the instrument which relays His Message to us and our humble prayers to Him. God grant you and your administrators the grace to combat the unceasing evils present in the world today.

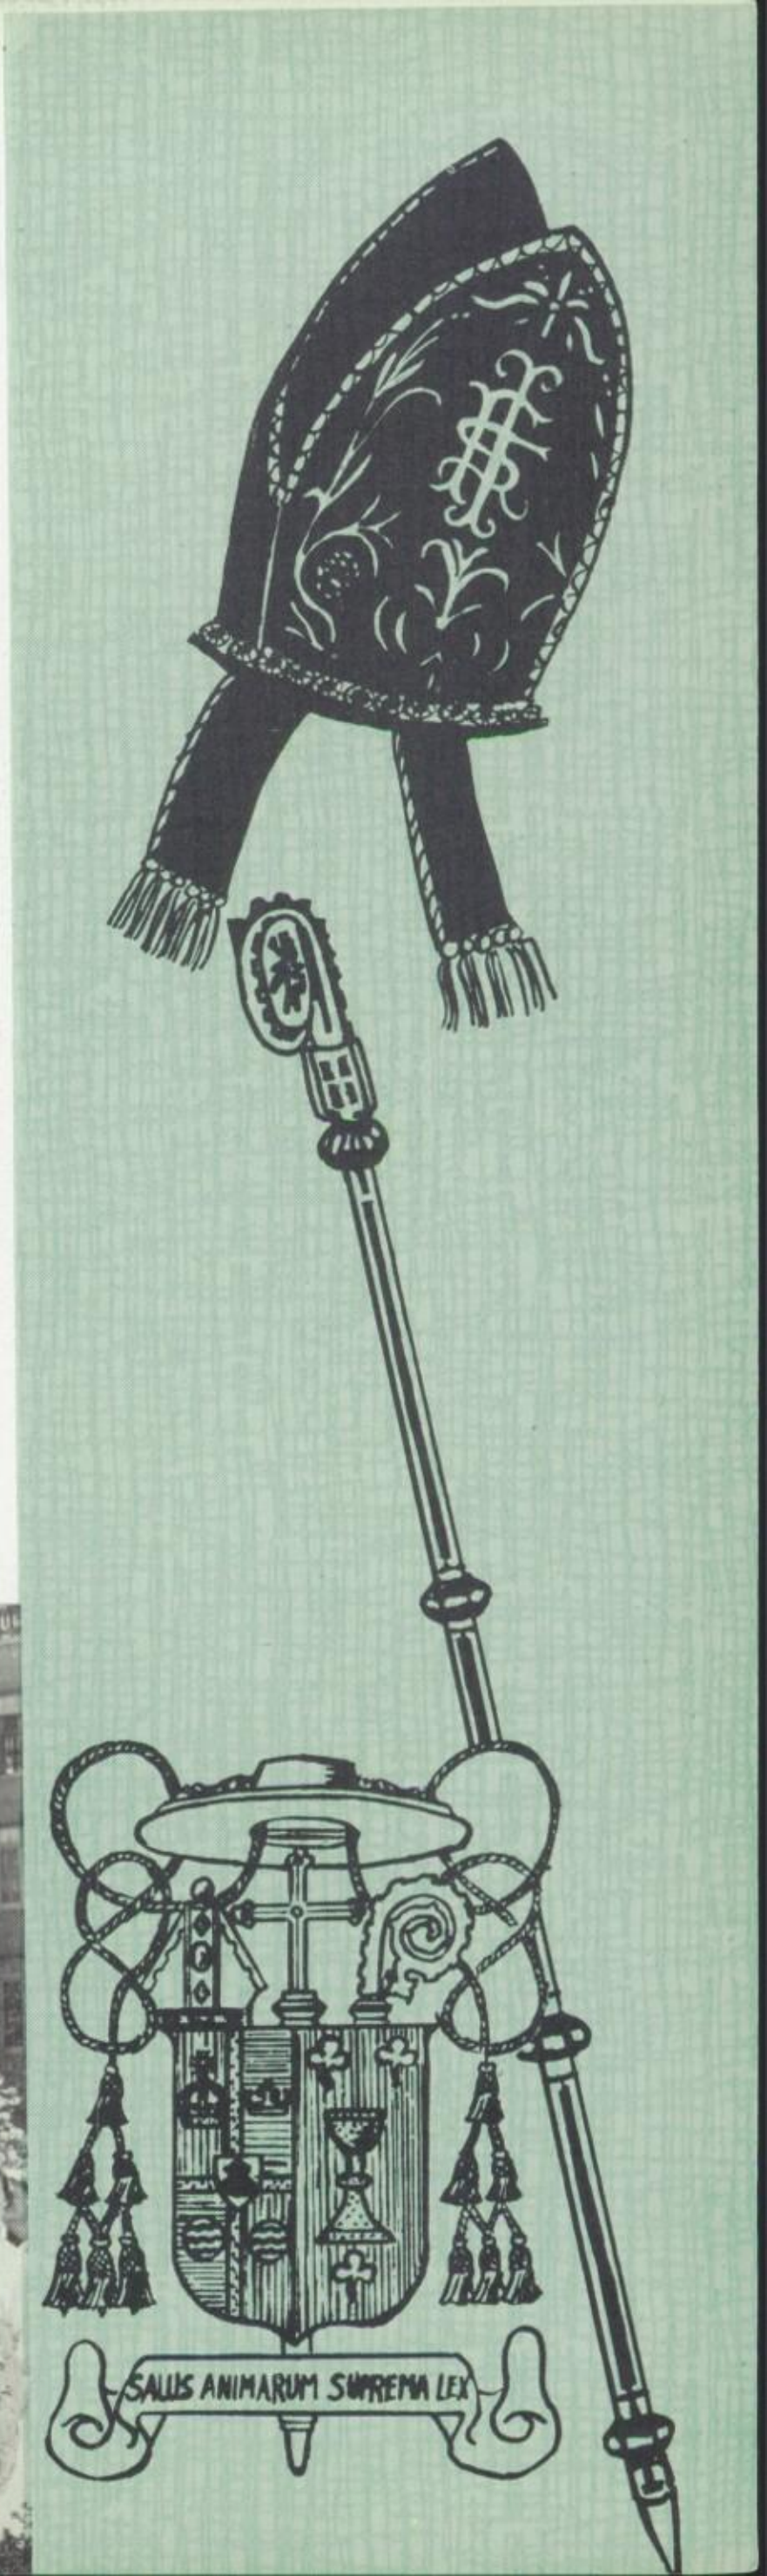
Our Bishop

His Excellency
BRYAN J. McENTEGART
Bishop of Brooklyn

Brooklyn welcomes a new Bishop this year. Thursday, June 13, 1957, was a memorable day, for Bishop Bryan J. McEntegart became the fourth Bishop of the Diocese of Brooklyn. He is wholly worthy of the high honor conferred upon him and is deserving of the best affection of his flock—priests, religious and people.

His Excellency's impressive record of remarkable administrative ability, as Rector of Catholic University of America, his learning, his unselfishness and his Christlikeness well exemplifies what one educator said of him, "Bishop McEntegart seems to think and act as did Our Divine Master." Who could ask a greater tribute?

We at St. Joseph's extend our heartful welcome and pledge our unfailing loyalty, our deep love, and our complete obedience to our new Bishop and we ask Our Lady of Lourdes in this centenary year of '58, to bless and make fruitful his efforts in the Cause of Her Son, Christ.



OUR BISHOP dedicates a statue of St. Joseph on the grounds of St. Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, commemorating the faithful service of the eight nurses who were killed in an auto accident, December 9, 1956.

Right Reverend Henry M. Hald, Superintendent of Schools for the Diocese of Brooklyn, and Reverend John B. Murray, C.M., Dean of the St. John's School of Education, appeared at the Second Annual Teachers Congress held under the sponsorship of the Alumni Association of St. John's School of Education.

RIGHT REVEREND
MONSIGNOR HENRY M. HALD
Superintendent of Schools

Right Reverend Monsignor Henry M. Hald, Diocesan Superintendent of Schools, has harmoniously adjusted the scholastic efforts of the Catholic schools. Under his guidance, a system of acceleration providing for one graduation each June was inaugurated. Ably assisted by the Reverend Eugene J. Molloy, newly appointed Associate Superintendent of Schools, Monsignor Hald provides Catholic students of Brooklyn with excellent opportunities for attaining the finest standing in education.

Reverend Mother Immaculata Maria
Dear Reverend Mother:

We, the Seniors of 1958, welcomed you as undergraduates in your first year as General Superior of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Now, in your second year, we would like to sincerely congratulate you as another year of outstanding moral, spiritual and physical leadership is added. We express our thanks to you for honoring us by being with us during our school bazaar and we ask God to bless you always.

Keystone of Catholic Education

RELIGION

The most important phase of our education as Catholic high school students is a thorough religious training—a training that forms a true and finished character. Doctrine, Morals and Moral Guidance for practical Catholic living are studied in the Freshman and Sophomore years.

Sacred Scriptures and Church History complete the four-year religion course for the Juniors and Seniors. Graduates leaving St. Joseph's are thus taught to think, judge and act constantly and consistently with right reason. Besides the study of the Encyclicals taught by Father Johnston, Father Laurie and Father Sullivan, something new has been added—a Pre-Cana Conference conducted by Father Johnston for Senior classes, twice a week in the school auditorium.

MISSION MINDED. Senior Mary Cox consults Sister Jean Alice about mission work while Juniors Jeanette Klymm and Grace Cullen stand aside. Those in the club are: Annette Falcassi, Elizabeth Ronessi, Regina Duane, Gail Rogers, Jane Prerato, Lorraine Cosgrove and Teresa Terenzi.

STAMPS GALORE! Miss Delaney, Supervisor of the Mailing Department of the New York Telephone Company, hands stamps to mission representatives Patricia Mulroy, Marianne Macaluso, Marylyn Massey, Gail Rogers, Eileen Gallagher, Gertrude Guella, Elizabeth Gunhouse and Nancy Morelli.

MISSION CLUB

The missions of Asia and Puerto Rico are in great need of food, clothes and funds. St. Joseph's students send material and financial aid to those less fortunate in these needy regions. Each semester, all classes elect a representative who attends a weekly meeting to plan future activities with the officers of the Mission Club. Coupons are exchanged for value and stamps are collected. The Telephone Company adjacent to the school is an outstanding supporter in stamp contribution. To the missionaries engaged in the challenging work of saving souls in foreign lands are sent clothes, books and magazines. The daily recitations of prayer and the now and again sacrifice of the price of a pizza pie, movie or frappe for the missions is the spark that bursts into flame for the spread of the Faith at home and in foreign lands.

THE WINNERS! These Freshmen topped the Coupon Drive: First Row: Elizabeth Gunhouse, Patricia Mulroy, Nancy Morelli, Gail Rogers, Marianne Macaluso, Gertrude Guella, Jane Schnipe. Second Row: Regina Duane, Mary Keenan, Kathleen Barkays, Kathleen Curran, Mary Barresi, Diana Del Guidice, Hope DuBritz, Cornelia Cusic, Eileen Donnelly, Caroline Petsche, and Genevieve Roeder.

STAMP SNIPPERS. Cutting stamps at Mission Meeting are Dorothy Sidwaski, Barbara Widman, Dolores Mayrose, Sheila Donahue, Arlene Corallo, Barbara Gulczynski, Roseann McCabe. Standing are Joann Mauro, Andrey Bonin, Dorothy Zacharawski, Gloria Barker, Eloise D'Aragon, Valerie Chalupski, Diane Nader and Phyllis Mariano.

LIGHT IN DARKNESS. Margaret Lavin lights candles while Margaret Geddes, Carol Brereton, Mary Morrissey, Madeline Marron, Patricia Karrney, Mary Chini, Roberta Cernigliaro, and Sheila Donahue prepare for a Legion meeting.

Promotion of Catholic Action

CATHOLIC ACTION. Every week Claire Woodfare and Catherine Volpe assist at the office of the Propagation of the Faith by putting their secretarial knowledge to a practical use.

LEGION OF MARY

In all parts of the world there are branches of the organization known as the Legion of Mary. The promotion of Catholic Action by the performance of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy is the purpose of the organization. At St. Joseph's, Legion members through prayer and good works volunteer their services to hospitals, homes for the aged and infirm, and to orphanages of the diocese. Since St. Joseph's has twelve Legions, students are given the opportunity of paying homage to Mary by prayer and spiritual reading any day of the week. With Mary as their guide, members strive for the Legionary goal—personal sanctification and the love of fellowmen by service.

PROJECT TO PUERTO RICO. Eileen Maher, Elizabeth Maher, Lorraine Schultheiss, Maryann Gentile, Marion Mandera, and Donna Curiale of the Legion of Our Lady of the Most Holy Eucharist Praesidium send dolls from a Social Studies project to Puerto Rican missions.

LOVE OF NEIGHBOR. Legionnaries Maureen Surey, Danielle Mignogna, Diane Conley look on as Margaret Gilchrest autographs the young patient's plaster cast in hospital.

Spiritual Riches

RETREAT

During the annual Holy Week retreat, the students are given an opportunity to enrich their spiritual lives. Every day is begun by attendance at Holy Mass and the reception of Holy Communion. At certain times during the three-day retreat, the girls are encouraged to avail themselves of spiritual books and pamphlets offered. The daily conferences provide ample meditation on the doctrines of Faith and the practice of moral living. By question and answer, by individual counseling if so desired, and by Confession the student learns how to handle her problems and how to live her life to the fullest. Retreat is the time when attention is centered on practical Catholic living by personal love for and imitation of Christ. Besides the annual retreat, students partici pate in many week-end retreats.

THE ANNUNCIATION. The Angel Gabriel, Phyllis Anderson, announces to Our Lady, Carolyn Miller, that she is to be the Mother of God.

AND A SAVIOUR IS BORN . . . Linda Kelly, Josephine Mamone, Margaret Gilson, Veronica Dooley, Carolyn Miller and Claire Kollert portray the Nativity Scene.

Christmas Programs

CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS

There were three assemblies that day —the Friday before Christmas. During the fourth, fifth, and sixth periods, the first Christmas was enacted and the Glee Club heightened the unfolding of the scenes, from the Annunciation to the Presentation of Gifts by the Three Kings, with their fine two-part renditions of hymns and carols.

The Christmas atmosphere pervaded every nook and corner of the main building and sister-buildings down the street as evidenced by Christmas bulletin boards, windows, halls and auditorium. Every classroom had a Christmas Crib attractively centered to pinpoint the real spirit of the season.

At a Christmas Bazaar, booths displaying dolls, table centerpieces, luggage, religious articles, household and personal gifts, and a fabulous collection of Sweepstake prizes were soon depleted by students and their parents who purchased or won gifts that could be used as presents for family and friends.

THE MAGI. Jean Kroplin, Catherine Browne and Mary Allard kneel during enactment of Nativity. Phyllis Anderson and Ann Shephard can be seen in the background.

AND SANTA CAME . . . Members of the Alumnae Theodora Manucci and Jane McDonald assist Santa, Patricia Shea, in distributing gifts at a party for children from nearby parishes.

THE CHAPEL

More fortunate than most are the students at St. Joseph's for they have a Chapel on the sixth floor of the school. Every Friday of the school year, an assigned class has the privilege of attending Holy Mass and receiving Holy Communion. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament every First Friday and Confession three times a week are other spiritual advantages offered the students who wish to avail themselves of them.

THE CEREMONY BEGINS. Kathleen Dawson, May Queen, and her attendants take their places in the convent garden.

THE MAY QUEEN bearing a crown of roses joins Concetta Carrano (at microphone) and student body in the recitation of the Act of Consecration.

Our Homage To Mary

MARY, WE CROWN THEE . . . Our May Queen places floral crown on the statue of Our Lady of Fatima during the singing of a hymn.

MAY CROWNING

Annually at Mary's Shrine in the Convent gardens, the Seniors, dressed in formal pastel gowns and followed by Juniors in pastel informals, participate in an impressive ceremony—The Coronation of Our Lady as Queen of the May. After the consecration of themselves as loyal subjects of the Queen, the student body recites the rosary and sings hymns. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament concludes the ceremony.

SOPHOMORES SING MARY'S PRAISES. Attendants of May Queen place floral bouquets before Our Lady's altar on the stage in the auditorium during the singing of a hymn to Our Lady.

"MANY NATIONS" PROJECT. Lana Coscia, Marilyn Pesek, Rose Sforza, Barbara Sloan, Mary Dowd, Carol Angel and Diane Sheldon pose around their project they set up in the Parmentier library.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Citizenship Education and Global Geography, our government, and our rights and duties are the threads that weave patterns for American citizenry in tomorrow's world.

No one is capable of loving his country nor can he fully appreciate his many freedoms until he has studied how to form uniform structures by applying each right and duty carefully. The solution to a vigilant citizenry proud of its heritage is the knowledge that geography makes History, and the consciousness that mountains and plains, rivers and oceans have played vital roles in civilization's advance.

I KNOW THAT! Jesse Volpe guards the Globe as Mary Kay Byrne points to the area of discussion during a History in Action Class. Sister Regina Immaculate smiles approval.

HISTORY

The experiences of America and Europe were never points of isolation in our comprehensive study of man's progress through the ages. Besides historical information, students are taught to be wary of the commentator and columnist who with glib speech attempt to interpret facts not objectively and with truth but as it is in agreement with their opinion.

In the American History course, Seniors meet patriotism which knows no bounds as it peers from the pages of their text and reveals the greatness of their heritage. Time "marches on" in the study of World History as it spreads before the Juniors the magnificence of the ancient world as exemplified in the culture of Greece and Rome and the unparalleled achievement of the present. To climax each course students must not only acquire knowledge but must retain that gained to pass a comprehensive Regents Examination in World and American History.

THE WASHINGTON TRIP

One of the anticipated pleasures of every Junior is the Fall and Spring Senior trips to the Nation's capital. This year the four-day trip included the sites of the historic cities of Virginia. One of these, Jamestown—Colonial America born again—has been restored to its former dignity and beauty. It has all the threads of early living pulled together to form its original pattern of living.

In Washington, where patriotism is stimulated and the vibrant beauty of its heritage revealed, there's a living lesson in History. There is the realization that our country is young, that its traditions are old and that the costliness of its heritage has its origins in hard work and foresight. That's why when one hurries up the steps of the Capitol, one's thoughts focus on the many who have tread, tried, trusted and died for the ideals of "Our Own America."

It rained and rained and rained and rained the four days of the Fall and three days of the Spring tour and when the train pulled out of the station homeward, the sun peered through the clouds mockingly at the undaunted 180 and 123 respectively.

STALACTITE SPLENDOR. The Spring trip included a visit to Luray Caverns, Virginia, for accelerated Seniors.

STUDENT SERVICE LEAGUE

"Order is heaven's first law" and the Student Service League is our law-enforcing organization. Our League is the prop that supports the loom so the threads of knowledge may be woven with ease. Under the direction of Sister Loretta Gertrude, the League meets once a week to discuss problems encountered during the week and to suggest remedies to be applied in solving them. Justice prevails and because of this it commands the cooperation and respect of both faculty and student body, for both realize that cooperation accompanies smooth operation.

. . . IN ACTION. Tina Reggerio instructs a small group of Student Service Leaguers before they go on duty. They are: Adelaide Hicks, Margaret Brillante, Concetta Carrano, Gail Bricca, Jean Brunone, Joanne Hombach, Patricia Oram, Virginia Gordon, Mary Ann McKenna, Virginia Burke and Louise Dee.

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

This student organization promotes a spirit of cooperation between faculty and student body. Its sole purpose is to serve. The organization's fruitful activities give evidence of efficiency in operation. Class representatives from the ten Senior classes and an elected governing body plan and carry out the year's activity schedule. Fall and Spring officers were selected by lot after individual classes had elected their candidate as a representative, intelligent, responsible leader. Successful ventures of the year were the dances—Freshman Initiation Dance; Sophomore; and Junior Square Dances and a semi-formal, "Shangri La", and the Senior dances, informal and formal, "My Fair Lady"; the Boat Ride, and Fashion Show. Meetings have accomplished much for the promotion of good will and student entertainment.

IT'S THE FASHION! Stylist Marionann Mullins introduces models, Patricia Gutherie and Beth Saum, and gives the audience a glowing description of the high styles in the Fashion Show sponsored by the General Organization.

THEY MAKE THEIR ENTRANCE. Reverend Mother Immaculata Maria, General Superior of the Sisters of St. Joseph, and Sister Mary Regina open the Christmas Bazaar by their entrance into the school auditorium. G. O. Officers were the Guard of Honor for the occasion.

SISTER CATHERINE MARIA
Business Subjects, Guidance, Placement, Grade Adviser

GUIDANCE AND PLACEMENT

As a student approaches graduation, she must consider what the future holds for her. The Guidance and Placement Department affords excellent opportunity for helpful advice about occupational fields and scholastic requisites for higher education. By psychological and aptitude tests and counseling, graduates and undergraduates are directed to situations pertinent to their experience and skill.

In the Freshman and Sophomore years, aptitude tests are administered and identification photographs for record cards taken under the immediate supervision of Assistant Guidance Director Sister Agnes Therese.

THE MAGIC DOOR. Jane Conton emerges happy about the help she has received and, now it's Margaret Hodgson's turn to get guidance from Sister Catherine Maria, Guidance and Placement Counselor.

Guidance and Placement

A CAREER DISPLAY. Carol Mase, Barbara Koran, Ann Reichhold and Gail Halikas look to Sister Catherine Maria for approval of their artistic attempts at decoration of job bulletin board.

CONCENTRATION. Juniors are busily engaged on a nationwide Merit Scholarship examination to determine ability to qualify for college education.

PREPAREDNESS. Geraldine Hayes fills out job application blank, while Barbara Rogers and Eileen Kelly read college catalogues.

SCISSORS AND PASTE. Diane Temme assists Sister Agnes Therese in checking identification data, on Freshmen record cards. Jeanette Donner, Felicia Parise, Camille Novello and Leona Capri paste pictures on students' cards.

Career Day

CAREER DAY

The futures of our graduates are very important to us. This is why, once a year, Career Day is held. The Seniors are grouped into individual conferences according to their ambitions—college, business, or nursing. The speakers represented leading, as well as, varied fields of endeavors

This year on March 11, the Latin American Institute, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Western Electric Company, Equitable Life Assurance, Guaranty Trust Company, Chase Manhattan Bank, Chas. Pfizer and Company, Bell Laboratories, Mutual of New York, U. S. Naval Supply, Saint Joseph's College, Saint John's School of Commerce, and Saint John's Hospital, Long Island City were represented. The girls felt that the day was well spent listening to "a word from the wise."

OUR LADY OF LIGHT—Senior class presidents, Marionann Mullins, Jacqueline Palestino, Maryann Mirante, Rosemarie Cantarella and Nancy De Caro, in a thoughtful moment after dedicating Career Day to Our Lady of Light, Spouse of the Holy Ghost.

TELLS ALL—Miss Marion Greenburger emphasizes pointers—accuracy is more important than speed; neatness and good appearance are essential to the modern secretary.

THE NAME'S THE SAME—Sister M. George Aquin, C.S.J., Professor of Sociology at St. Joseph's College, clarified difficulties about qualifications and detailed advantages of attending St. Joseph's College for Women.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Frances Correnti questions Miss Marguerite Sullivan of St. John's School of Commerce about part-time work. Miss Sullivan offered a program of working at the University in the daytime and using the College facilities at night.

CHEMISTRY ON FILE. Mr. William Thompson of Charles Pfizer and Company claimed his company required girls who have a substantial knowledge of chemical terms and forms.

STEN IN SPANISH? Mrs. Etta Beiles of the Latin American Institute tells the girls of the need for stenographers with ability to translate their notes into Spanish. The Institute trains girls to fill the growing demand for foreign-language secretaries.

THE WEARING OF THE WHITE. Sister Mary Clarina socializes with Katherine McGuire, Irene Sullivan, Ellen Boyle, Jeanne Carnava, Phyllis Sczlanski, Alumnae and now student nurses at Saint John's Hospital, Long Island City.

YOU'RE EXCUSED. Sister Consolata Maria issues excuse passes to sophomores Ann Reichhold and Gail Halikias while Miss Brady informs official teacher over the Public Address system.

GENERAL OFFICE

The staff of the General Office is indispensable to the smooth operation of this school in the heart of a busy business section. Sister Consolata Maria expertly handles the major headache of operation—the attendance records of thirty-two classes of approximately 1500 students. Registrar Sister Grace Loretta manages the transcripts of records, admissions and transfers, and the monumental task of recording Regents ratings for Albany each year Miss Brady, Office Clerk, besides a tremendous amount of clerical work is kept busy at the switchboard listening to excuses for absence, answering questions of callers and making connections for the faculty and business firms.

ONE MOMENT PLEASE. Miss Brady handles not only outgoing and incoming calls about absences but also switchboard calls.

HOW MANY? Josephine Maimone, Patricia Menzies and Rosemary Gennuso sell stationery when class salesmen bring down list.

ON LOCATION. Mr. Hansen attends to callers at the school and is in contact with the General Office.

MISS FRANCES BRADY
Office Clerk

MR. HENRY HANSEN
Superintendent's Office

NO SOONER SAID THAN DONE. Barbara Lyzinski questions Sister Saint Theresa about the position of an outline in a Junior Transcription Class.

EXPERT ADVICE. As Gale Melanson waits her turn, Kathleen Fullam gets help from Miss Van Houten. Eleanor Brennan and Camille La Bosco also seek attention.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPING

The goals in a Stenography and Typing course are speed, accuracy and the ability to turn out work that is commercially acceptable. The standard of acceptance is that of the reasonable demands of the business office. Besides knowledge of business forms and the details of business practice, Catholic ideals of conduct and traits of character form our students into dependable trustworthy stenographers.

RECORDINGS FOR RHYTHM. "Recordings are valuable," says Sister Saint Eugene, "for increasing speed and for getting used to a different voice." Juniors agree as they take dictation at 80 wpm.

ANNUAL VISITOR. Sister Letitia Maria looks in on an Introduction to Business class.

INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS AND SECRETARIAL PRACTICE

From Freshman year with its study of business forms, usage, procedures, guidance and application of Christian principles, to Senior year with its emphasis on speed and accuracy in typing, correct transcription, skills in mastering business machines and coping with secretarial duties, ideals are inculcated to equip students for positions as efficient secretaries. This is why graduates at St. Joseph's are in great demand in the business world today.

Acquiring Competence and Responsibility

BUSINESS ARITHMETIC AND BOOKKEEPING

Business Arithmetic in the freshman year trains for accuracy in performance and facility in fundamental operations while the art of Bookkeeping for the Senior lies in the systematic recording, classification and interpretation of accounts in business and management. Many students have gone into the fields requiring these skills and declare that there's a fascination in figures.

BOOKKEEPERS ALL. Sister Mary Edward answers question of Ann Duffy while Mary Mettera, Helen Wittman, Marie Lo Baido, Marcella McCarthy, Elaine Di Bartolomei, Nancy Symes, and Rose Marie Cantarella work out problem in assignment and Marie Byrd ponders solution.

INSPIRATION! IMITATION? Miss Gertrude Angus demonstrates the art of taking 240 wpm. Future court stenographers take heed!

BUSINESS LAW

Wholesome respect for law and its enforcement is the goal of Juniors in the Business Law course. Through knowledge of rights and obligations as well as honesty in business transactions, reasoning and judgment are developed. Presenting statutes beneficial to careers in the business world is the practical side of the course. Law enforcement and respect for truth is taught through the media of "mock trials" in the classroom and by class attendance at trials in the County Court, Brooklyn, where court procedures are seen at first hand. Due to the achievement of determined goals in the course, law students in three successive competitions sponsored by the Catholic Business Education Association have captured the Law Trophy.

SCIENCE

Science marches on without faltering. In a magnificent procession of achievement it advances, carrying not only the hopes of mankind but also the inevitable changes in our way of life. The Chemistry student and the Biology student both realize the importance of this advance of science in today's world. They are aware of the wisdom of the Creator Who unwinds the threads of new discoveries for new scientific patterns in life.

To the student who studies any channel of science, whether he studies Dalton's atomic theory or the process of photosyntheses, scientific exploration presents a fascinating challenge. This challenge is not only for the "Scientists of Tomorrow," it is essential for the nurses, teachers, and parents of today. Scientific achievements uncover God's creative wonders and introduce the physical laws of nature to man.

Key to Communication

SPANISH

Language is the key that unlocks the doors to many lands. Through it man communicates. In the Sophomore year, the study of the Spanish language and culture begins. The Juniors take a Regents Examination—Spanish Two Years—and may elect to take an added year of the language to use for their major sequence if their previous marks warrant it. Vocabulary, grammar, and the history and culture of the Spanish people comprise the course and qualify the student for responsible positions in legal, international, or stenographic fields of the business world.

MUSIC

LONDON BRIDGES. Phyllis Guiffre and Mary Ann Gurrie dance beneath the bridge formed by Margaret Hopkins, Barbara Lyzinski, Margaret Kerrigan, Kathleen Gormaly, Marian Franzese, Linda Link, Patricia Hanrahan, Virginia Hogan, Mary Ann Le Benz.

MUSIC

Whether entering into business fields or qualifying for higher education, the student must have, along with a degree of skill and learning, a knowledge of the control of her emotions. There could be no better preparation for the interplay of emotions than that experienced in music. God alone in His omniscience comprehends motivations underlying actions, and man investigates wise regulation of emotions. It is by analyzing the impact of the music of illustrious composers who wrote as they did, that the student can detect why emotions act as they do.

To fill this need, Sister John Vianney instructs a class of Freshmen and Sophomores in theory and song, so that St. Joseph students learn to appreciate, to understand and to develop discriminating taste for the finest in music. Besides fundamentals of music, diversification is provided by class Community Sings and Square Dancing.

Theory as well as music appreciation are subject to examination. The Music Education Department affords the Seniors an opportunity of utilizing knowledge gained by attendance at the Opera. It is thus that the appreciation of the beauty in music lives.

ORCHESTRA

Inspiration, instruction and entertainment—that's what Mr. John Renner, conductor, offers to members of the school orchestra. Admission to the orchestra begins in the Freshman year and those who have some musical ability are eligible. Upon acceptance, students are required to attend rehearsals each Friday afternoon in the Little Theater. Last year's instrumentalists made their debut in Town Hall and were awarded a trophy in their grouping. This year they will participate in "The Spring Festival."

GLEE CLUB

Developing genuine tone quality is the aim of all members of the Glee Club. To attain this goal, practice is held in the Little Theater, each Wednesday, under the direction of Sister John Vianney. The group, which is composed of Sopranos, Altos, and Second-Sopranos, are recruited from Sophomore classes.

Musical appreciation is stimulated by repetitious recordings of classical selections. Clever imitations in the roles of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado" made the after-school meetings very enjoyable. Another after-school feature was attendance at the Opera, "Carmen", at Town Hall.

Carols sung by the club in two and three-part melody provided background music for the Christmas Play. With the accent on their repertoire of Spanish songs, fifty girls were selected to sing in the Spring Recital.

WITH VOICES STRONG. Paulette Hios directs Anne Sweeney, Carol Giordano, Barbara Schardt, Comille Riemma, Leona Capri, Carmela Saraceno, Donna Schneider, Rose D'Avanzo, Marie Stello, Eileen Sisk, Loretta Rowe, Barbara Gibbons, Marilyn Libera, Nancy Duhring, Irene McPhelon, Felicia Parisi, Ann Dignan, Marie Iaradi, Barbara Mazzerelli, Kathleen Stevens, Carolyn Goodliffe, Kathleen Gouch, Frances Attanasio, Rita Beyers, Frances Gaglioti, Caroline Guzzi, Patricia Smith, Margaret Hodgson, Margaret Mortensen, Rosemarie Molivari, Margaret Docherty, Kathleen Ryan, Marilyn Arnold, Eleanor Baden, Christine Sardo, Rosemary McNamee, Patricia Murphy, Joan Young, Barbara Lyzinski, Virginia Hogan, at a practice in the auditorium.

"AND IT CAME TO PASS . . . Health Education

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? Theresa Cardinale gets her third and last polio shot from Dr. J. Difronzo as Dr. H. Loewy and Sister de Paul are all set for the next class.

HEALTH EDUCATION

Health Education seeks to realize the "sound mind in a sound body" by pointing the way to a richer spiritual, social, emotional and moral development of the individual student. In this study the student is made aware of the fact that body and soul are gifts from God and these gifts can approach the ideal. Doctor Helene Loewy, school doctor, and Sister de Paul, school nurse, are the practitioners who mark the course of action to be observed for better health by their three times a week check-up.

OPEN WIDER! Barbara O'Brien obeys an amused doctor, member of the Catholic Dental Association, while the twins, Jane and Gail Williams, watch the proceedings as they wait their turn.

CHEERLEADERS smile down on Referee, Moderator Sister Winifred Marie, Coach Kilkenny and score-keepers Lee Guirreri and Kathy Dowd as they pause for a victory pose.

BASKETBALL

Basketball returned to St. Joseph's this Fall term with the completion of a ball court on Lawrence Street. A Senior and Junior Varsity and a Basketball Club was formed and a schedule of games was arranged. The new team won an overwhelming victory in their first game with Queen of All Saints of Brooklyn, and tied in a fast tussle with Memorial. Tough overtime play gave the victory to Memorial. The team bowed to opponents in subsequent games, but they showed teamwork by playing to the fullest. A fine display of good sportsmanship was in evidence throughout the season of tough breaks.

The perfection of their peppy cheers and lively antics is due to the determination and enthusiasm of the Majorette Twirler, Joanne Aiello, and the Cirrito twins, Mary and Catherine, who by constant drill are ever on the alert to polish up new and old cheer routines.

GIVE A CHEER! Twirler, Joann Aiello, Captain, Catherine Cirrito, Co-Captain, Mary Cirrito lead (First Row) Patricia Albert, Carole Ambrico, Marie Laezza, Aurella Amendola, Julia Bongiorno, Rosemarie Iocino, Barbara O'Brien, Georgine Ciago, Barbara Mutkowski. (Back Row) Frances Robinson, Rita McLellan, Marcella Weeks, Ellen Casey, Rita Faukner, Marie Penna, Chickie Sheehan, Patricia Manix, Anne McNerney in latest cheer routines.

THE MORE YOU LOOK AT IT THE PRETTIER IT SEEMS! This is the general opinion of all Seniors about their rings and Louise Gaboa, Joan Johnstom and Teresa Rescigno are no exceptions.

FOUR YEARS OF HARD WORK AND STUD
Christine O'Keefe points happily to trio miring that precious symbol of loyalty.

Ring Day

RING DAY

"A blue stone encased in gold" is the school ring—symbol to every Senior of loyalty to her Alma Mater. After the distribution of the rings in the classroom by Sister Irene de Lourdes, the ceremony of the Blessing of the Rings conducted by Father John J. Johnson, Religion instructor, Father reminds the Seniors of the significance of the symbol they were wearing—"a remembrance of the high ideals instilled during four years at St. Joseph's". Proudly they display the hand that wore the ring to every underclassman on that November 21, the day most esteemed of all days in their Senior Year.

A STANDING TRADITION! Sister Margaret Vincent stands by tradition as she places Senior ring on the finger of Phyllis Farenga. Adrianna Pineiro waits her turn.

SISTER IRENE DE LOURDES
Business Subjects, Secretarial Department, Grade Adviser, Rings, Official Teacher, Secretarial Department

THE MAGIC MOMENT! Sister Irene de Lourdes prepares to distribute rings to Catherine Lavelle and Mary Ann McBride.

THE HANDS THAT WILL WEAR THE RING! Father Johnston raises his hand to bless four of the rings.

THEY'RE SET TO POLKA. Barbara Kempczinska and Maureen Sweeney dance the Polka.

ENTER THE QUEEN! All eyes are upon Queen Esther as sh visits the temple to confer with the high priest. Junior Clas looks on as twelve of their classmates re-enact the scene from th biblical play, "Queen Esther".

FOR ME? Patricia Zuchik as "Emily" in "Our Town" accepts birthday gifts from Dolores Mott, "Mr. Webb", and Faye Iverlino, "Mrs. Webb" as Arleen Vannata watches in the background.

CENTENNARY FESTIVAL! Mary Cox, as Our Lady of Lourdes, appears to Bernadette, Marionann Mullins, as peasants, Josephine Mazza, Alice Murphy, Adelaide Hicks, and Gail Gallagher look on.

Assemblies . . .

Drama at Our Doors

SPORTSWEAR WAS WELL REPRESENTED! Patricia Murtha models a summer afternoon co-ordinate. Marlyn Roth and Patricia Coleman are ready for a set of tennis.

ONE ENCHANTED EVENING! Attired for an enchanting evening, Teresa Gemma, Anna Carlino and Ellen Redding show the latest in formal wear at the Fashion Show held in March for the Mother's Club.

WELL SUITED. Margaret Lavin models business attire.

Dreams Come True

On Top of the World

"CLAP YOUR HANDS AND . . ." Dancers follow calls during Virginia Reel at the Square Dance held in November.

LOW BRIDGE. Rosemary Angotti and escort go under, in another call during dance.

"PROMENADE YOUR PARTNER," calls Mr. Franz from Westbury (above) and Juniors solemnly obey the command.

FRESHMEN FUN. Freshmen opened the season of activity with their annual traditional dance (top, left). This year the dance was held in the open—on the newly paved basketball court.

FLASH BULB FAILURE! The camera just wouldn't explode as it was supposed to do at presentation of rose bouquet to Sister Rose Alonzo so the event was not recorded for posterity, however, it "made it" when Sister John Vianney received hers.

"Spreading the News"

"SPREADING THE NEWS"

The Irish Show—"Spreading the News" —a one act play, was presented at De Gray Hall, St. John's University, Brooklyn, by competent performers on March 14, 1958.

A "Musical" of Irish lyrics, jigs and reels, under the direction of Sister John Vianney, followed the play. Paulette Hios was the accompanist on the piano during play and musical.

The warm and spontaneous audience-response to the efforts of the cast climaxed a successful production for the "Great Day for the Irish."

TIME TO SHINE. Four Irish colleens—Kathleen Kearney, Margaret Sweeney, Anne Sweeney, Kathleen Curran—keep in step in the lively Irish jig.

"WHO KILLED ————?" Magistrate Anne Sweeney disposes of all alibis as cast seeks to tell "time and place" on that fatal day of the murder in the Irish "who dunnit". Rita McLellan, Anna Enders, Arlene Anderson, Kathleen Kearney, Margaret Sweeney, Eugenie Gilbert, Diane Ianelli and Charlene Gilbert fearfully listen to each other's testimony.

MOTHERS' AUXILIARY

The success of the many school functions is due in no small measure to the untiring zeal and practical initiative of the Mothers' Auxiliary. Under the able leadership of President Mrs. L. Nolan, Corresponding Secretary Mrs. J. Pirandi, and Treasurer Mrs. A. Fraeulin plans for the year's activities have been arranged. Among plans that materialized into successful social or religious events were the semi-annual Card Party, the Day of Recollection and the Christmas Party for the faculty.

BLESS US, O LORD—Mothers and their daughters say grace before meals at the Mother-Freshman Communion Day.

"THAT'S MY CHOICE," says Mrs. Saum as she admires the prizes at the card party (circle, opposite page).

THE WINNER! Mrs. Fraulein identifies the winner of the sweepstakes at the semi-annual card party held in November.

Loyal Alumnae

EXPRESSION IS BORN BUT OF IDEAS! Mary McCabe, president, welcomes Alumnae to meeting as Sister Mary Edward, Anna Russo, Sister Jeanne Gertrude and Roseann Cantwell listen with amusement.

THE SPIRIT OF GIVING! Rosalie Padavano, Sister Mary Edward and Sister Jeanne Gertrude prepare gifts for poor children in the area.

ALUMNAE

Now the pattern is taking shape. The first semblance of a design emerges. Four years of Catholic training has equipped the Alumna with ideals for the Cause of Christ in the business world.

At the first meeting of the Fall term, after elections, an agenda for the year was planned. Highlighting the Social Calendar were a Spaghetti Buffet, Catered Dinner and a Christmas party for poor children in the vicinity. A Day of Recollection, a special Mass and Communion followed by a breakfast in the school cafeteria rounded out a half year of fruitful activity.

More and more graduates are swelling to the ranks of the Alumnae due to the spirit of comaderie that keynotes each meeting.

SISTER JEANNE GERTRUDE
Religion, Business Subjects, Law, Legion of Mary, Alumnae, Official Teacher

THE SOUP LINE? At the annual Alumnae dinner in the school cafeteria, Senior Alumnae recalled the many moments they had to wait in line for soup, sandwiches and desserts.

GRATITUDE UNLIMITED. Mrs. Nero and Mrs. Horan and volunteer waitresses made the Seniors very happy by their cheerful service on Class Night.

SOUP'S ON! Mrs. Turte prepares to distribute soup t hungry students on the sou line during the fifth lunc period.

AMONG OTHER CHORES. Mrs. Nolan serves "Punch" at the "Shangri La" Junior Dance as Mr. Doonan amuses the thirsty gathered at the table.

KEPT BUSY. Dottie De Peyster and Nancy Thomas are kept busy serving Freshmen and Faculty in the Annex on Lawrence Street.

PERSONNEL

St. Joseph's is a "school of the times" and the hustle and bustle of business in the heart of a business section has found its way into its halls. Consequently, telephones have to be answered, elevators must be operated, hungry students need to be fed, and the maintenance of the school sustained. How could this be done without the efficiency of our personnel—the watchers who catch the slipping wool or thread of the shuttle in day-by-day activity.

The personnel's devotion to duty, their consideration, courtesy and capable service are an inspiration to the 1600 students who pass among them daily.

ON THE JOB! Besides maintenance, Mr. Murphy gives a hand on elevators in emergency. Mr. Colgan does a "clean-up" job in front of the convent along with other duties in school.

SISTER M. DULCIDE, C.S.J.

Tuesday, January 21, 1958, a Solemn Requiem Mass was offered at St. James Pro-Cathedral, for the repose of the soul of Sister M. Dulcide. Sister spent many years as librarian and teacher in St. Joseph's. Those at St. Joseph's who knew and loved her will not fail to remember her in prayer. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen.

CATHERINE SCANLAN

A member of the Legion of Mary at St. Joseph's and active in the Blessed Virgin Sodality and Confraternity of Christian Doctrine in St. Martin of Tours Parish, Brooklyn, Catherine Scanlan of the accelerated class of '58 died after an emergency operation, March 17, 1957. Popular with teachers and classmates, Parmentier editors place this photograph of Cathy as memento. May she rest in peace. Amen.

CHALLENGE

Life, you're a lovable gypsy,
Though you pilfer the thread of my years
To wind on your whimsical shuttle
And weave into laughter and tears.

What matters my thrust, that you heed not
Omnipotent plan or design,
When you weave me a wisp for my ruing,
Too subtle for me to define?

But keep to your shuttle, and fashion
The frills that your fancy must wear—
Can you pinion the wings of my Angel?
Can you limit the flight of my prayer?

By Sister Loretta Gertrude, C.S.J.
